

WHO DO YOU THINK YOU ARE?

Great Books Curriculum Spring Theme is:

THE QUEST FOR IDENTITY.

The Globe Theater where Shakespeare first presented most of his plays. It burned down during a production of Shakespeare's play Henry VIII. Today, four hundred years later, it has been rediscovered and rebuilt in London and is again home to dramatic productions.

A four hundred year old sketch of The Swan, a theater similar to The Globe.

EXPLORE THE QUEST FOR IDENTITY IN A SPECIAL ENGLISH 102 CLASS FEATURING PLAYS BY WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE

Fully Transferable.

Counts toward English Requirement for Graduation.

Counts toward Great Books Curriculum credit.

Professor Virgen English 102 Section G9

Dedicated to the best that has been thought and said.